Artful Jaunts

The Barnes Foundation invites you to join Thom Collins, Neubauer Family Executive Director and President of the Barnes for an exclusive Circles trip, exploring the art scene in Los Angeles from October 28th to November 1st, 2024. Los Angeles is the second largest art market in the United States and increasingly the first choice for many blue-chip artists to call home. Our co-host for the week will be Andrea Feldman Falcione, a respected curator and art advisor who has worked in Los Angeles for over 25 years. She began her career at MoMA with none other than Thom Collins; this reunion is sure to provide great chemistry and artworld stories throughout the week!

The Barnes will be welcomed with open arms by leading collectors in LA including visits with three ArtNews Top 200 collectors: Michael Ovitz, David Gersh and Cliff Einstein.

We will also have a curator led tour of Olaffur Eliasson's exhibition OPEN at MOCA, and enjoy insight from curators and directors of the best of Los Angeles museums, along with gallery owners. Special visits include LACMA, The Hammer Museum, The Huntington Museum and Gardens as well as mega-galleries Hauser & Wirth.

A highlight of the Barnes trip will be significant time in artist studios with visits to Jonas Wood & Shio Kusaka, Shinique Smith and Thomas Houseago and others to be announced. Finally, PST Art: Art & Science Collide will take place across LA during our trip. A Getty Museum initiative including 45 organizations across Southern California discussing thought-provoking themes art and science; we will incorporate a taste of the best of this unique art event.

Your artistic encounters will be complemented by hospitality and culinary delights to match! This trip will include luxury accommodations at The Maybourne Hotel with breakfast included which is in the heart of the Beverly Hills shopping district.

Our dining will capture the casual elegance of Los Angeles as well as its global culinary strengths at local favorites both new and old. Restaurants will be announced closer to our trip dates, likely to include a few of these leading restaurants: Il Pastaio, Lulu, Manuela, Republique, and Park's. Amidst the art-packed Barnes week in LA, we will also offer a "patrons choice" night: A casual art and pizza night at Jon and Vinny's with Thom or a night for you to take to the town and enjoy a restaurant reservation of your own selection.

Optional Extension to Joshua Tree:

Joshua Tree has become an artist's haven. Extend your art adventure by one day for a scenic experience, desert sky, and stellar artist studio visits with Liza Lou, Andrea Zittel, and Lily Stockman. Extension participants will depart for a scenic three hour drive to Joshua Tree on November 1, stay in the desert that night and return to LA on November 2.
