FALL ART WEEK IN LONDON

Trip Overview
Oct 12 – Oct 18, 2025

Artful Jaunts

The Seattle Art Museum would like to invite you to join Scott Stulen, Illsley Ball Nordstrom Director and CEO, on a visit to one of the most exciting cities in the world during the height of the fall contemporary art season. London is arguably the center of the European art world, and its rich history of art museums and galleries is matched only by the city's innovative contemporary art scene.

This six day trip includes exclusive private visits to artist studios, collector homes, and prestigious art museums, as well a full VIP access to Frieze London and Frieze Masters.

We will focus on the best the city has to offer from curator-led before hours visits to the Tate Modern and Royal Academy, and cocktail receptions at prestigious private collections, to tours of some of the top galleries in Mayfair, including White Cube, Lisson, and Victoria Miro.

Two of the most well-known British artists working today, Anish Kapoor and Antony Gormley, will welcome us for studio visits; and art historian Jen Ellis will guide us through the highlights at Frieze. These daily outings will be accompanied by special lunches and dinners at some of the most notable restaurants in London including Mount St. and Gymkahna as well as a one-of-a-kind private dinner in the Sir John Soane's Museum. The Beaumont Mayfair, a five-star luxury hotel with impeccable dining and wellness amenities, will serve as our home-base for the week.
