ART & CULTURE IN MEXICO CITY

Trip Overview

October 29 - November 3, 2025

Artful Jaunts

The VIA Art Fund invites you to join VIA Executive Director, Brooke Anderson, in Mexico City (Ciudad de Mexico), one of the most important political, cultural, educational, and financial centers in North America with over 20 million people. We will explore some of the best galleries, museums, artist studios, and private collections in the metropolis. This includes private, curator-led tours of the Frida Kahlo Museum, the Jumex Museum, the Museo Nacional Antropología and leading Mexico City galleries, Kurimanzutto and the Olivia Foundation.

There will be private collection visits to the homes of Eugenio López, founder of the Fundación Jumex Arte Contemporáneo, and sculptor Pedro Reyes and his wife, clothing designer, Carla Fernandez as well as studio visits with established, local Mexican artists like Ana Segovia, Gabriel de la Mora, and Abraham Cruzvillegas. Art historian, James Oles, will guide the group through the Zócalo, the historic center of the city, with stops at the Palacio de Bellas Artes to see the murals by Rivera, Orozco and Siqueiros, the Templo Mayor, and the Colegio de San Ildefonso to see the murals by José Clemente Orozco. We will also visit Casa Gilardi, one of the most well known projects by Mexican architect, Luis Barragán.

When our eyes are not being immersed in Mexico City's art, architecture, and history, our other senses will be treated to culinary adventures in one of the best food cities in the world. Every meal throughout the trip will showcase a diverse range of influences and Mexican ingredients.

The closing dinner is at Rosetta, the personal vision of chef Elena Reygadas, voted World's Best Female Chef in 2023, where the menu is always rooted in local and seasonal ingredients celebrating simplicity as a supreme value.

The St. Regis Mexico City, our accommodation for the week, offers restful and luxurious five star accommodations in the heart of this bustling metropolis. Soaring 31 stories, the hotel is centrally located along the tree-lined Paseo de la Reforma near the expansive Bosque de Chapultapec.
